Are you prepared to go out on an adventure of linguistic and cultural exploration?

The purpose of our junior-level Spanish classes is to expose kids to the language and culture in an enjoyable, engaging, and participatory setting. Additionally, this approach helps kids learn Spanish at school by improving their general self-esteem, drive, and academic success.

Additionally, by preparing students for the DELE Exam, the Spanish Ministry of Education recognizes their proficiency in Spanish and awards an official language certification.

This course is ideal for kids to start learning Spanish at an early age, regardless of your level of experience.

Highlights of the course:

- Small class sizes allow for more individualized care
- Friendly and knowledgeable Spanish instructors
- Interesting exercises and real-world examples
- Pay attention to all of the essential skills: Writing, Speaking, Listening, and Reading

What will you be learning:

Introduction to Spanish culture and custom:

- Common Spanish phrases and expressions
- Basic Spanish Grammar and Vocabulary
- Food culture places

Overall Performance:

We provide tests to gauge how prepared pupils are for the real test.

Internal assessments are designed to mimic actual exam circumstances, which benefits students by:

Learn the format of the test. Identify the various question categories, deadlines, and format. Evaluate their expertise and abilities. Determine what needs to be improved.

Familiarize themselves with the exam format – Understand question types, time limits, and overall structure.

Assess their knowledge and skills – Identify areas for improvement.

The Importance of Feedback

Feedback is an integral component of the learning process. Following internal assessments, teachers provide comments to pupils on:

Accuracy of answers: Recognising the right answers, recognising mistakes and misconceptions and highlighting areas in need of development.
